2019 ABBA Hall of Fame Inductee Ted Mangum

HOUSTON, Texas- On Wednesday, February 27th, 2019, Ted Mangum joined an elite group of ABBA breeders and friends in the ABBA Hall of Fame. The ABBA Hall of Fame was created to recognize breeders and staff members who have made significant and consistent contributions to the breed and association. This year’s Hall of Fame inductee is Ted Mangum for his love, devotion, and many contributions to the American Brahman breed.

Ted Mangum created the Mangum Division of J.D. Hudgins, which was known for the XL brand on the front right shoulder. He purchased his first Brahman cattle in 1937 and joined the American Brahman Breeders Association in 1938. The Mangum Division was known for its high-quality cattle including +JDH Lady Ellery Manso 651, who was the female used in the ABBA Standard of Excellence pencil drawing.

In 1962, Ted Mangum was elected to serve as a Director for the American Brahman Breeders Association and continued to serve until his death in 1979. On November 9th, 1979, Mr. Mangum passed away of a heart attack while working his Brahman cattle. Congratulations to the Mangum family on this well-deserved honor.
