American Brahman Breeders Association Honors Director’s Service

HOUSTON, Texas- Each year during the Annual Membership Meeting, the American Brahman Breeders Association honors Board of Director members for their longtime service. A director receives their first service pin after four years serving on the Board and are awarded additional pins in four-year increments. Receiving four-year service pins were Rodolfo Pacheco of Guatemala City, Guatemala and Pasquale Swaner of Waco, TX. Dr. Scott Satterfield of Palestine, TX received an eight-year service pin. Receiving 12-year service pins were Patricia Collins of Chilton, TX, Rachel Cutrer of Wharton, TX, and Carolyn Falgout of Amite, LA. Carl McKenney of Terrell, TX and Steven “Steamer” Swaner of Waco, TX were given 24-year service pins. Receiving a 36-year service pin was Richard Sturlese from Lafayette, LA. Lastly and mostly impressively, Ed Cullers from Hungerford, TX and Marcus Shackelford from Wauchula, FL were awarded 40-year service pins.

The ABBA Board of Directors is the group of Brahman breeders elected by the ABBA membership to represent their respective geographic areas and govern matters pertaining to the Association. “These Directors are individuals who give of their time and talents to serve ABBA, it’s membership, and the Brahman breed,” said Ashley Hughes, Executive Vice President, ABBA. “These highly respected men and women drive the future of the breed and the goals within the Association. We truly appreciate these esteemed Directors for their years of service to the Brahman community while in meeting rooms and throughout the countryside.”

Congratulations and a sincere thank you to all longtime Directors for their years dedicated to ABBA.
